ALUCO

TURNING YOUR DREAMS
INTO REALITY

Timeless Design, Advanced Performance

Inspired by Art Deco and industrial style steel windows and doors, our Elegance range delivers a 21st Century solution for this iconic design. Manufactured from precision engineered aluminium, Elegance offers all the design and style capabilities but with the added benefit of advanced performance across thermal, security and durability.

THE ELEGANCE INTERNAL SYSTEM

Interior Designs

The versatility of the Elegance range is not restricted to simply the external, the Aluco Elegance Internal system provides internal spaces with a luxury divider creating unique spaces through bespoke doors and screens.

Creating small or large screens in a multitude of design options and openings, the internal Elegance system offers the perfect solution to alternative room partitioning. Offering the same slim sightlines with horizontal and vertical astragal bars as the Elegance external system.

The internal screen and partitioning system from Aluco allows your interior design to make a real statement.

THOUGHTFUL LIVEABLE SPACES

The Elegance range allows a multitude of style options to be created, all to suit your interior and exterior needs whilst maintaining the 'classic' steel look appearance.

From screens, doors, side partitions, orangery windows and so much more. Not forgetting internal doors too, all internal Elegance doors have no bottom frame allowing your floors to seamlessly flow through the room, be it hallway, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom.

Our steel look Elegance range is only restricted by your imagination.

IT'S THE INSIDE THAT COUNTS

Bring Interiors To Life

The Aluco Elegance Door screens will enhance any home, with classic design details like the handle back plate, bottom kick plate and the slim horizontal and vertical glazing bars providing the iconic industrial finish, available as single and double door options.
